Ayniqsa, hozirgi kunda til o‘rganuvchilar orasida ommalashgan IELTS (international English language testing system) va MULTILEVEL (milliy ingliz tili sertifikat) tinglab tushunish bo‘limidan yuqoriroq ball olish uchun ushbu qo‘llanmadan foydalanish mumkin.

Ushbu uslubiy qo'llanma Toshkent iqtisodiyoti va pedagogika institutining Xorijiy til va adabiyoti yo'nalishi 60111800 Til aspektlari o'qitish amaliyoti fani uchun darsning 14-18 daqiqalik qismida talabalarga audio material sifatida qo'llansa yoki mustaqil ish sifatiga topshiriq berilsa, talabaning tinglab tushunish qobiliyatini oshirib qolmasdan, balki ular turli xil mavzudagi dialoglarni tushunishini osonlashtiradi. Uslubiy qo'llanmada autentik va yarim autentik audio matnlarning mazmunini, ulardagi asosiy fiklar va detallarni ajaratish, aniq ma'lumotni olish va ochiq aytilmagan fikrlarni kitobning audiomatnidan qayta o'zlashtiradi. Natijada tinglovchi ingliz tilini chuqurroq taqqoslab va qiyoslab o'z bilimini mustahkamlaydi. Bundan tashqari mashqlar vizual (rasml), solishtirish, ko'p variantli hamda bo'shliqni to'ldirish kabilardan tashkil topib, aynan shu turdagi ma'lum bir qismlari IELTS va MULTILEVEL testlariga o'xshaganligi uchun talaba A2,B1,B2 darajadagi audio va videolarni tushunib olishadi.

Uslubiy qo'llanmada testlarning javoblari mavjudligi til o'rganuvchilarga mustaqil o'qib o'rganishi uchun yordam beradi.

Teacher: Right, listen carefully, everyone. I want to tell you about our school trip. We're going to go on Saturday. I hope you can all come. As you know, we're going to visit the film museum. There are lots of very interesting things there about the cinema and how films are made. We'll have to leave at eight forty-five so don't be late. We'll get there by bus. Please meet me in the car park. You all know where that is, don't you? And when we return, the bus will leave you at the school entrance. Tell your parents, won't you? What next? Oh yes, the cost. It'll be six pounds seventy pence each, OK? Remember to get the money from your parents. Now, I'm going to give you some work to do at the museum. You'll need to write things down, so take a pencil with you. We'll have lunch in the museum café so you needn't bring any food with you. Well, I think that's everything ...

Martin: You've got a big family, Sonya, haven't you?

Sonya: Well, Martin, there are six children altogether and I'm twenty and the oldest.

Martin: Wow! I know Vivienne, of course. She had her fifteenth birthday last month, didn't she?

Sonya: That was Sally. Vivienne looks older but she's two years younger – but you mustn't say I told you she's only thirteen!

Martin: Of course I won't. Well, my little sister's seven ...

Sonya: ... and she plays with my brother Roger.

Martin: So they must be the same age.

Sonya: They are. Then there's my other little brother, Frank.

Martin: And how old is he?

Sonya: He's two years younger than Roger.

Martin: So he's only five. There must be someone else.

Sonya: ... Oh, Deborah! I nearly forgot.

Martin: Isn't she eighteen and starting at college in September?

Sonya: Yes, she's going to study medicine. She's wanted to do that since she was ten.

Martin: What a nice family.

Man: Can I help you?

Woman: I'd like some information about the mountain park. I've got seven days' holiday next month.

Man: Yes, certainly.

Woman: First, I'd like to book somewhere to stay.

Man: I'm afraid there's nothing in the park, just a small café, that's all. The nearest guest-house is in a village a few kilometres away.

Woman: Has the village got somewhere to swim or a cinema?

Man: It's very quiet. There's just a small supermarket that sells food.

Woman: I don't mind that. Can I take my car to the park?

Man: Yes. But you must leave it at the entrance with the other cars and buses. Visitors must walk through the park.

Woman: And how much does it cost to go in?

Man: From Mondays to Fridays everyone pays twelve dollars, but at weekends it's thirteen dollars for children and sixteen dollars for adults.

Woman: Right. Will I see any animals in the park next month?

Man: I don't think so. But it's the best time to go! There won't be any snow and the flowers will be beautiful.

Sarah: Hello.

Mats: Hello, Sarah. It's Mats.

Sarah: Hi, Mats! How are you? Are you going to come to England in October?

Mats: Yes, I am. I'm really happy. I'm going to visit Manchester. That's why I'm phoning. I have some questions.

Sarah: What do you need to know?

Mats: First, what will the weather be like? Will it be cold?

Sarah: Well, it'll be autumn – the temperature will be 14 degrees.

Mats: So, what clothes shall I bring?

Sarah: Well, it rains a lot in Manchester, so bring a raincoat.

Mats: OK. Next question. How do I get to Manchester from Heathrow Airport?

Sarah: You can take the underground into the centre of London and then a train from Euston station. That's E-U-S-T-O-N. And there's also a plane from Heathrow to Manchester.

Mats: Which is the cheaper?

Sarah: The train, I think. It's £30.

Mats: And finally, can I bring you anything from my country, Sarah?

Sarah: Oh, yes, please! Can you bring me some cheese? I always like food.

Mats: No problem. See you in October.

Sarah: Bye!

Man: I can't go on holiday in June because my parents are coming to stay with me then.

Woman: OK, then you'll be back for my birthday party in August.

Man: It's very hot, isn't it?

Friend: Did you go with your family, Sarah?

Sarah: Yes. This is my mother walking in the mountains.

Friend: What lovely trees!

Sarah: And this is my sister, Caroline, swimming. She preferred swimming here to the hotel pool.

Friend: The sea looks very blue. And who's this standing outside a castle?

Sarah: Jack. But it's not a castle, it's a cathedral. It's one of the oldest in Spain.

Friend: And is this you, Sarah, buying bananas in a market?

Sarah: Yes, that wasn't far from our hotel. The fruit was really cheap there.

Friend: And here's Peter eating. Is he in the garden of your hotel?

Sarah: Actually, it's a restaurant near the cathedral. We often went there.

Friend: What's your father doing with the cassette recorder in this photo?

Sarah: Oh. He loves history. He's in a museum here listening to information. That was his favorite day, because we also visited a castle in the morning.

Friend: They're great photos, Sarah.

Audioscript-3

Sue: Does bus eighteen go there?

Jim: That's right. It takes fifteen minutes. Don't get bus twenty-five because you have to walk a long way.

Sue: I like doing sport early in the morning. Is it open at seven?

Jim: Yes, you can go there from six, except on Sundays. Then it doesn't open until nine. The swimming pool has good hot showers; you have to bring your own towel but you can get soap there. They don't make you wear a swimming hat.

Sue: Do they sell things to eat there?

Jim: Only sandwiches; they don't sell drinks. I usually take some fruit.

Sue: I'd love to go with you next week. How about Wednesday?

Jim: Well, I work until late on Wednesday. I'm free on Saturday but it's too busy then. It'll have to be Thursday.

Sue: OK. See you then.

Matthew: Did you like the party, Sarah?

Sarah: Yes, Matthew. I met a lot of people. Did you see Jenny? The girl with the short blonde hair?

Matthew: I think so. Was she talking to John at the beginning of the evening?

Sarah: Yes. I tried to speak to him later but he didn't say much.

Matthew: He's OK. He just prefers not to talk a lot.

Sarah: Who was the girl who arrived late? She was very friendly. She knew everyone.

Matthew: That was Mary. She's certainly not quiet!

Sarah: I know her brother, Bob. He was there too.

Matthew: He's still at school, isn't he?

Sarah: Yes. Everyone was a lot older than him. But he didn't mind.

Matthew: Another person I liked was David.

Sarah: Is he rather short?

Matthew: Not at all. He was taller than everybody there! Who else did you meet?

Sarah: Sally. She's travelled all over the world and knows a lot of famous people. Everything she said was interesting.

Matthew: It was a good party.

Friend: It will have. Only the clothes shops are open this month.

Anne: Well, that's OK. But it's at least thirty kilometres away and I haven't got a car.

Friend: Well, there is a coach once a week.

Anne: Is there? I can get that if it's not on Saturday. I have to work then.

We all have to wear white, and I haven't got one. You can get them in Davey's – that's D A V E Y S – it's a new shop in the High Street. It's not far from the car park – you can go there before you go to the supermarket. You know the cinema? Well, it's next to that. It's easy to find. There are three sizes – small, medium and large. My old one was a small but I'm a lot bigger now, so could you buy me a large one, please?

I hope you can get it – I can't play in the match without it. It's not expensive, it only costs eight pounds ninety-nine. I'll give you the money tonight.

Thanks a lot, Mum. See you later. Bye.

4 What colour will the room be?

Boy: What colour are you going to have your room, Ann?

5 Where did Minnie and Richard first meet?

Woman: Richard, have you met the new student in our class?

Mark: Hello, Jack. You want to go to the sports centre one day a week, don't you? Well, I've got some information. On Monday there's golf.

Jack: Mmm. I prefer volleyball, Mark. Also, Monday's a bad day for me. Tuesday's better. Is there volleyball then?

Mark: It's basketball, but you like that, don't you?

Jack: Quite. What can you do on Wednesday?

Mark: Let's see. It was badminton, but not enough people wanted to do it so it's swimming now. That's no good for me because I hate water.

Jack: And I go to swimming at school every Tuesday. Is there anything outside? Football or hockey?

Mark: On Thursday. But they don't do hockey, I'm afraid, just football. But look, Friday is good.

Jack: Why?

Mark: You say you like volleyball. Well, that's at the sports centre then.

Jack: Great.

Mark: Or there's Saturday.

Jack: Swimming again?

Mark: Tennis. That's outside and you like it better than football, don't you?

Jack: Yes, but I like volleyball best.

Friend: I tried to phone you yesterday.

Diane: Oh, sorry. I was busy all day and then I went to London in the evening for a meal with some friends.

Friend: Did you take your car?

Diane: I left it at home. Parking's such a problem. But the underground was closed for repairs so I had to take the bus. It was quite slow.

Friend: Did you go to your favourite Spanish restaurant?

Diane: I was hoping to try some Mexican food but my friends booked a table in a Chinese place.

Friend: Was it expensive?

Diane: Quite cheap actually, and the food was very good – but it's only a small restaurant so a lot of people had to wait for tables – and it was quite noisy.

Friend: You didn't stay there and talk afterwards then!

Diane: We went for a walk along the river. It was too late for the cinema.

Friend: Didn't you get wet? It rained here all evening.

Diane: The wind was very cold but it stayed dry.

Friend: And then it snowed during the night!

Diane: That was after I got home. But I had a really good evening!

Woman: My daughter is 13. Is she old enough to watch it?

Man: It's for anyone who is 12 or older, so she'll be OK.

Woman: I hope it's not too expensive. Some videos are nearly twenty pounds.

Man: It's five pounds ninety-nine. We're selling it at a special price today.

Woman: Great. Can I have one, please?

Man: I'm sorry. I've just sold the last one. You'll have to go to our other shop.

Woman: Oh dear. Where's that?

Man: It's in Shirley Street. That's S H I R L E Y.

Woman: Oh, that's where the post office is, isn't it?

Man: Yes, the video shop's not far from there, just across the road from the bank. It's only five minutes from here.

Woman: OK. Thanks for your help.

Audioscript-5

Man: Now listen carefully, everybody. Here is some excellent news. Next Thursday a most interesting visitor is going to come to talk to us. He is the astronaut Dr Robert Teale, that's T E A L E. I'm sure a lot of you have heard of him. He's very famous for his journeys into space.

He's going to talk to us about space travel. Only he can tell us just what it's like to travel round the earth in a spaceship, past the moon and the stars.

The whole school is going to listen to Dr Teale. We will use the school hall because none of the classrooms will be big enough. Classes will finish at twenty past two on Thursday because the talk will start at half past. Don't be late.

If your parents would like to hear Dr Teale, we have a few extra seats. The ticket price for them will be three pounds eighty-five, but of course for students it is free.

Man: Well, cars are expensive.

Audioscripts-2

Friend: I like your new T-shirt, Sarah.

Sarah: Mm. The colours are nice, but the problem is it's too big. I got it from the shop at the sports centre. I went swimming there because it was a hot day, but it was too noisy for me. There were a lot of people in the pool.

Friend: So was it difficult to find a space in the car park there?

Sarah: Yes! It's not big enough.

Friend: Did you go to the café?

Sarah: Yes, for a cold drink. But I didn't stay. The tables and floor weren't clean.

Friend: Ugh! But I hear they have a good football club there.

Sarah: That's right. My brother wanted to go but it starts too late in the evening for him. It's a pity because it's not an expensive club.

Friend: Can you learn tennis there?

Sarah: I called about lessons but they cost too much.

Friend: I'll teach you tennis – but not today – it's too hot. Let's go for a cold swim in the river.

Audioscript-3

Friend: Hello, Philip. Are you doing a photography course?

Philip: Yes, there wasn't one at my college, Park College, so I go to City College in South Road.

Friend: Are your classes in the evening?

Philip: Yes, I finish at Park College at quarter past five and get home about six. The lessons start at quarter to seven. I have just enough time to eat.

Friend: How much are they?

Philip: My ten-week course is usually ninety-five pounds. But it costs me seventy-five pounds because I'm a student. There's also a five-week course for fifty-five pounds.

Friend: Is it a good course?

Philip: Yes, great. The cameras are rather old, but my photos are much better now, so I'm really pleased. I'll never be a famous photographer though.

Friend: I think taking photographs is difficult.

Philip: Well, we did animals first and they're certainly not easy. But then we took pictures of trees, and that wasn't difficult. We'll photograph children next.

Friend: And after the course?

Philip: There aren't many jobs for photographers. It'll be my hobby. I can use my father's camera but I'll have to buy a lot of film.

Man: It's for a Chinese friend. He wants an easy class.

Woman: Well, there's a two-hour class for beginners.

Man: Mmm. My friend would like something shorter.

Woman: Well, we have a fifty-minute speaking class. That would be good for him. The teacher is Miss Jarvis. That's J A R V I S. The students all like her.

Man: How much does that class cost?

Woman: It's seven pounds fifty per class or if you pay for all twelve classes now, it's only seventy-eight pounds – it's cheaper that way.

Man: Right.

Woman: Can your friend come to the school soon and book his place? The address is two hundred and twenty-three, Fitzroy Square.

Man: Is that in the centre of town?

Woman: Well, it's about twenty minutes' walk from the station. We're just by the bookshop.

Man: Right. Thank you.

Woman: Goodbye.

Woman: That's all right then.

4 How much did the woman's desk cost?

Man: I've just spent sixty pounds fifty on a new desk. Very expensive!

Woman: Well, I paid sixty-six pounds fifty for mine.

Man: I saw one for fifty-five pounds, but it wasn't very good.

Woman: A good desk costs more than fifty-five pounds.

5 Where is the man's watch?

Man: I can't find my watch anywhere!

Woman: Did you take it off when you did the washing-up last night?

Man: I've looked in the kitchen and it's not there.

Woman: Here it is. You left it on the bath before you went to bed.

Man: We've got to choose a restaurant for our class party next Saturday, Lena. What about the Rose Garden?

Woman: It'll be too cold, because all the tables are outside. I suppose Carla's Café is still closed.

Man: It's open again now but it's not big enough for all of your class. What do you think about Pizza Place?

Woman: The food's good, but they turn the lights so low, it's impossible to read the menu. What about the Curry House? The waiters are really friendly and everyone likes Indian food.

Man: I phoned them yesterday – they're fully booked on Saturday so there won't be any tables free.

Woman: Oh dear! I've just been to that new fish restaurant – Captain Crab. The music was so loud it was impossible to have a conversation.

Man: We'll want to talk, so that's no good. I suppose there's the Carlton Hotel.

Woman: Even a snack there costs a lot of money. We need a cheaper restaurant. Let's look in the newspaper ...

Helen: Sam, you know I sing in Nick's band?

Sam: Mmm. He plays drums, doesn't he, Helen?

Helen: Yes. Well, we need another guitar player. How about you?

Sam: Sure!

Helen: Nick wants to hear you play first. Are you free on Wednesday?

Sam: Sorry. How about the next day or Friday?

Helen: Let's say Thursday – Nick's busy on Fridays.

Sam: Fine. Where and what time?

Helen: Come to my flat at seven thirty and we can walk to Nick's. The band uses his dad's garage because his bedroom's too small.

Sam: Should I bring anything? Food? Music?

Helen: Nick's mum makes us sandwiches and I always bring CDs. A warm sweater's a good idea, because it gets cold.

Sam: OK. When's the band's next concert? Aren't you playing at your brother's eighteenth birthday party?

Helen: Yes, and the college has booked us for the Saturday before that. We want to play at the Starlight Club, but they're fully booked at the moment.

Sam: Do you get paid for singing, Helen?

Helen: Of course – the band gets a hundred and ten pounds a night and we each have twenty-five pounds. Nick keeps ten pounds for things like advertisements.

Sam: Great.

Tony: Hello, is that Sally?

Sally: Yes?

Tony: This is Tony Bassett. We were at Romford School together.

Sally: Oh hello, Tony! I remember you well.

Tony: There's going to be a party for the pupils in our year at Romford School.

Sally: Oh – when will it be?

Tony: Well, we started at that school on the fourth of September, but the party has to be on the seventh – almost exactly ten years later.

Sally: That's a Saturday, isn't it? I know our first day at school was a Tuesday.

Tony: That's right. Do you remember my sister, Margaret? It's at her house.

Sally: Oh yes ... she got married, didn't she?

Tony: Yes. She's Margaret Jaggard now.

Sally: Is that J A double G A R D?

Tony: That's right. She lives in Park Road at number eleven, near the park entrance.

Sally: That'll be easy to find. Can I bring something to eat or drink?

Tony: There will be enough food, but everybody's going to bring c we'll enjoy looking at them.

Sally: I'll put the date in my diary.

1 Where will the man and woman meet?

Man: I'll see you outside the cinema at six o'clock.

Woman: Why can't you meet me at the station? Or better still, the café? We're going to eat there before the film, aren't we?

Man: Yes, but we need to be at the cinema at six to buy the tickets. Then we can go to the café.

Woman: Oh OK.

2 What's the date of Emma's birthday party?

Woman: Are you going to Emma's twentieth birthday party in June?

Man: Yes, I am. But it's in July actually.

Woman: Oh yes, of course. The twenty-first, isn't it?

Man: That's right. Her birthday is the day after mine. That's how I remember it.

3 Where is Norah's watch?

Girl: Have you seen my watch, Mum? I left it on the bookshelf.

Girl: That's your watch, Mum.

Woman: Oh, then I'm wearing yours! Sorry, I thought it was mine.

4 How much is a ticket for tonight's match?

Woman: Are you going to the basketball match tonight?

Boy: Look, there's my brother over there, talking to his friends.

Dad: Did you spend all your money, Amy?

Amy: No, Dad, but we all bought something. Look, I found the video I wanted.

Dad: Great!

Amy: We spent hours in the department store. Alison wants to take all her shoes on holiday, and her suitcase is too small. She bought a new one, but it took her ages!

Dad: Then what did you do?

Amy: We went with Helen to look at mobile phones. Her parents are getting her one for her birthday, so she bought a magazine that had information about all the different kinds to show them.

Dad: That's a good idea. Did Lucy find a present for her mum's birthday?

Amy: Yes, she looked at some beautiful shoes, but they were too expensive. But I think her mum will like the sweater she bought.

Dad: Oh good. What did Kerry buy?

Amy: A picture of our favourite band playing at a concert.

Dad: Is that the band you saw with Jo?

Amy: Yes. She got their new CD today. The music magazines say it's excellent.

Dad: You must all be tired.

Jamie: Hi, Mum! I've decided to move from my room at the university and into a flat with some friends.

Mum: Is the flat near the university, Jamie?

Jamie: About twenty minutes by bicycle and there are buses every half hour. But I'll walk through the park and have breakfast at a café there with – my friends.

Mum: Will the flat be quiet so you can study?

Jamie: There's a shoe shop downstairs, but it's never busy, and there's not much traffic.

Mum: Is it expensive?

Jamie: Two hundred pounds a week, but there are five of us, so that's forty pounds each, which isn't bad.

Mum: Good. Does the flat have a nice kitchen?

Jamie: Well, the fridge is old and the cooker's a bit small, but that doesn't matter – we can't cook! Can I still use your washing machine, Mum, because there isn't one there?

Mum: Of course. When will you move?

Jamie: On Saturday.

Mum: If you can wait until the next day, Dad and I will help you, so you're ready for classes on Monday.

Jamie: OK. Thanks, Mum!

Man: Queen's Theatre. Can I help you?

Woman: Yes, do you have two tickets for this week's show? Saturday's best for me.

Man: Well, all of the tickets have gone then, but we still have a few for Wednesday evening or Thursday afternoon.

Woman: It'll have to be the evening. Have you got two near the front?

Man: Let me see. I've got two seats, but they're near the back, I'm afraid.

Woman: How much are they?

Man: They're eight pounds fifty each.

Woman: OK. I'll take them.

Man: Then that'll be seventeen pounds altogether. Collect your tickets from the ticket office in Ferret Road. That's F E double R E T. The ticket office is open all day.

Woman: OK. When does the show begin?

Man: At seven forty-five in the evening. It lasts two and a half hours.

Woman: Thank you for your help.

Girl: You've got a lot of photographs of your family. Who's this one of?

Boy: They're my cousins.

Girl: So which one is Peter, the one you're always talking about? This one here?

Boy: That's right. He's standing in the middle because the other two weren't speaking to each other that day.

2 Which day will they go to the cinema?

Boy: I'd love to see that film about the boy who learns to fly. I think I'll go on Thursday. Do you want to come too?

Girl: I can't that night – I'm going to play tennis with Dave. How about Tuesday ... or if not, Wednesday?

Boy: Tuesday night is fine. I can't on Wednesday. I'll see you outside the cinema at seven then.

Girl: OK!

3 What are they going to do on Saturday?

Boy: Come to the beach on Saturday.

Girl: I'd like to, but I must finish some work for the History lesson on Monday.

Boy: Haven't you heard? There are no classes on Monday because of the football match.

Girl: Oh great! I'll go with you then. My next History lesson isn't until Friday.

4 Where does Paul live?

Boy: I'm going to Paul's house to watch a video. He's living in our street now.

Woman: In the house that was for sale? Number thirty-two?

Boy: The one next to it, thirty-three. And Kevin from school is coming to live here too, at number thirty-one.

Woman: All your friends in the same street ... I'll never see you!

5 Where are they going to put the computer?

Boy: Can I have the new computer in my bedroom, Mum?

Woman: It's for all the family to use, so we really need it downstairs. What about putting it in the kitchen?

Boy: It gets very hot in there. The living room is nicer.

Woman: Well, it's noisy when the television is on, but we can try it there.

Janet: Hi, Sue. How are you feeling?

Sue: A bit better, thanks, Janet. Tell me about Emma's birthday party at the weekend. What did you wear?

Janet: My long skirt, as usual. Emma looked great. One of her presents was a sweater with gold flowers on the front, and she wore that.

Sue: I suppose Mike was there in that suit he always wears.

Janet: He was in jeans – but they were black and he looked great.

Sue: Was he with Michelle? She wanted to wear my white jacket, but it was too small.

Janet: She had on a blue Chinese dress, and Rachel was wearing blue too.

Sue: I know, the blouse with the silver buttons – I've seen her in it before. It looks lovely with her silver shoes.

Janet: Jason came straight from work, so he'd still got on that T-shirt he wears at the restaurant. Even in winter he never wears a sweater.

Sue: Well, the girls all had nice clothes anyway. Let's hope I can come to the next party.

Maria: Hi, Zak, this is Maria. I got a message about your sports bag but I didn't understand it.

Zak: Thanks for phoning, Maria. I'm still in hospital, so can you get my sports bag from school? It's blue, not black and white like my school bag.

Maria: OK. What size is it?

Zak: It's quite large and it's a good bag. I only bought it a few weeks ago, but it needs a wash!

Maria: Where is it?

Zak: Well, I had it on the sports field with me, but Tim took it to the classroom after my accident. I left it there when they brought me to hospital.

Maria: Is there anything inside it?

Zak: Only my school uniform. I'm wearing my watch, and I never carry money in it.

Maria: OK. Shall I bring it to the hospital after school?

Zak: I'm going home this afternoon. Can you take it there this evening? I'll need it for tomorrow morning.

Maria: Sure. How did you hurt yourself anyway?

Zak: It was after football. We were running back to the changing rooms when I fell.

Maria: Oh dear!

Man: Hello, I'd like some information, please. Is the swimming pool open every day?

Woman: Not on Monday, I'm afraid.

Man: I like to swim before breakfast. What time do you open?

Woman: We open the doors at six o'clock for the first swim of the day, the 'early morning swim', we call it. That's the best time to come, because after seven it gets very busy.

Man: I see.

Woman: And don't come between nine thirty and twelve thirty because schools use the pool then. It's closed to everyone else.

Man: OK. Do you have lessons? I want to learn to swim better.

Woman: Yes, every afternoon. It's seven pounds fifty a lesson or seventy pounds if you pay for ten.

Man: OK. When does the next course begin?

Woman: Let me see ... it's on the ninth of March. Would you like to start then?

Here is some good news! We have some free cinema tickets for you. They usually cost five pounds.

They are for a film called The Elephant Doctor. It's about a man who works in a zoo and looks after the animals when they aren't well. It's a great film for all the family.

All you have to do to get your free tickets is send your name and address on a postcard to Radio South-West in Bristol. The address is twenty-seven Argyll Road – that's A R G Y double L.

Send your postcard soon! Make sure it arrives before next Saturday, that's the thirtieth of July. All the postcards will go into a bag and we will choose the twenty-five winners then.

We have one hundred tickets to give away, but I'm afraid we can only give four tickets to each family because lots of people will want them. And we will send everybody who writes to us a book. This is about the film and has pictures of the actors and the animals in it. So send us that postcard now!

1 What are the boys going to do?

Boy: Let's go fishing. You never want to play football unless there's a lot of people. And it's too hot to play tennis, isn't it?

Friend: I don't think so. If we play in the park, we can go and get a drink in the café there afterwards.

Boy: Well, all right ... but I don't want to play for long.

Friend: OK. It'll be fun, you'll see, and fishing is boring anyway.

2 Which tent does the girl choose?

Man: This tent's very nice – it's big enough to stand up in.

Girl: But I need one that I can carry.

Man: This round one's for three people, and not too heavy. And this one here is for two people, so it's even lighter.

Girl: Oh, that'll be best. I'm travelling alone but the extra space will be nice.

3 Which one is Ruth's bike?

Girl: I'm taking your bike to the library, Ruth. Is that all right?

Friend: Fine. You can use the bag on the back to put your books in.

Girl: Yours has got a water bottle too, hasn't it? I don't want to take the wrong one.

Friend: That's right.

4 What does Sarah's dad do?

Boy: Are your mum and dad both doctors, Sarah? I saw them in the hospital together yesterday.

Girl: Only my mum is. My dad was a cook, but he works for the hospital now. He drives an ambulance.

Boy: That's nice for them, to work in the same place.

Girl: Yes, my dad is much happier now.

5 Which picture is the woman asking about?

Woman: You have some lovely pictures for sale. Can you tell me who painted the one in your window? It's very good.

Man: The oil painting of the Swiss mountains?

Woman: That's beautiful, but I meant the one below it.

Man: Oh, the summer flowers – that's by George Anderson. Look, there's a picture of him here in this art magazine.

Boy: I really like your new room, Kerri. It's so big.

Kerri: I know. There's even space for my computer. I'm going to put it on the desk.

Boy: Great ideal! Shall I put these books on the shelf?

Kerri: They're dictionaries. Leave them on the floor near the desk – I use them all the time.

Boy: OK. Now, what about your plant? It'll look nice on this table.

Kerri: Hmm, it should be by the window. Can you put it on this big cupboard? Be careful – it's heavy!

Boy: OK.

Kerri: I'd like the lamp near my bed, but there's no room.

Boy: Well, let's move this small cupboard, and then it can go on the table, like this.

Kerri: Great! And throw me that pillow, please. It should be on the sofa – I don't want it on the bed.

Boy: Fine. And why have you still got this old toy bear, Kerri?

Kerri: I don't know. It's always been on my bed. It can go on the shelf now. Is that everything?

Boy: Yes.

Sarah: Hi, Jim. I like your walking shoes. I haven't seen any like them in England before.

Jim: They're Italian, Sarah. I got them for my holiday in Austria last month.

Sarah: I need some like them, because I'm going to go there too.

Jim: Not many shops sell them. I got mine at the market, but they may have some at the new supermarket.

Sarah: How much were they?

Jim: I think they usually cost sixty-eight pounds, but mine were only forty-eight – so I paid twenty pounds less. I was really pleased.

Sarah: I'll get some this afternoon. Is there anything else special I should take?

Jim: Well, pack a hat, because the sun can be strong in the mountains. I took a sweater and a jacket, but I never needed them.

Sarah: Anything else?

Jim: Take lots of T-shirts, one for each day you're going to go walking.

Sarah: That's five days of my week's holiday. And what about taking a phone?

Jim: Well, there'll be one in your hotel, if you want to call home. But take yours, because then you can call someone if you get lost in the mountains.

Sarah: Thanks, Jim.

Sally: OK. Who is it by?

Richard: Let me see ... it's by Martin Cooper.

Sally: Is that C double O P E R?

Richard: That's right. You'll find the books on the third shelf on the Biology bookshelf. We have to look at part seven, pages a hundred and twenty-three to a hundred and twenty-seven.

Sally: OK. That's not very much. What is it about?

Richard: That part's all about fish. It's quite interesting. Mrs Knight says we're going to study lakes next week.

Sally: Oh, right. Do we have to read these pages for the lesson on Monday?

Richard: We have until Friday to do it.

Sally: Oh good. I'll go to the library on Thursday. Thanks, Richard. See you tomorrow.

1 What must the man turn off?

Woman: Let's go or we'll be late. Did you turn off the lights upstairs?

Man: Yes, but wait a minute – I can hear the radio in the kitchen.

Woman: Oh dear. That's the television. I was watching the news. Can you go and turn it off and I'll start the car?

Man: OK.

2 Where's the girl's pen?

Girl: Where's my blue pen? I'm sure I put it in my bag.

Boy: Oh, sorry. I used it to do my homework and I left it on the table in the kitchen.

Girl: I can't see it.

Boy: Oh, I know, it's by the phone – I used it again to take a message and forgot to put it back in your bag. I'll get it for you.

3 What will the boy do this evening?

Woman: Are you going to practise your guitar with your friends here this evening?

Boy: Matthew's playing in a football match tonight so we're going to do it tomorrow.

Woman: Will you wash the car for me then? It's very dirty.

Boy: Sorry, Mum, I'm going to go and watch Matthew play. I'll do the car for you at the weekend.

4 What animals did they see on their holiday?

Man: Did you see any monkeys when you were on holiday in Kenya?

Woman: Lots of them! But we weren't so lucky with the lions.

Man: Oh, that's a pity! What about elephants?

Woman: Not this time, but we're going back next year so maybe we'll see some elephants then.

5 What does the man want to buy?

Man: Do you think this sweater will look nice with my jacket?

Woman: The colour isn't quite right. What about that lovely blue shirt over there?

Man: It is nice, but I've got lots of shirts already. I need something warm to wear under my jacket.

Woman: Well, let's look in another shop then.

David: I really enjoyed the art lesson yesterday, Eva.

Eva: Me too, David. I liked going into the city to draw different places. Is this your picture of the museum?

David: Yes. What did you draw?

Eva: I couldn't decide between the castle and the market. In the end, I did a drawing of people buying vegetables. Do you know what Luke drew?

David: Yes, I met him in a café after the lesson. His picture was of some people in the park having a picnic.

Eva: I know Mary loves drawing water. Did she go to the river?

David: She went to the sports centre and drew some children having a swimming lesson. What about Patrick?

Eva: We were walking to the market together but then he saw someone cleaning windows in the bank and he stopped to draw that.

David: Cristina is the best artist. I saw her in Bridge Street sitting at a table having a drink. She was drawing a waiter talking to a customer. The picture looked really good.

Eva: What a great art lesson!

Man: Hello, Dawn, I haven't seen you for weeks.

Dawn: Well, last month I went to California for a concert.

Man: How did you get the concert ticket?

Dawn: My computer wasn't working, so I couldn't use the internet, and the post takes too long, so I called the ticket office and booked one that way.

Man: Really? Was your plane ticket expensive?

Dawn: Well, most people pay three hundred and fifty pounds, but my student ticket was only two hundred and thirty pounds. Even flights booked on the internet cost three hundred pounds.

Man: Great! Did you stay in a student hotel?

Dawn: I was so lucky! My mother's old schoolfriend let me use her apartment. That was nicer than going to a student place or a campsite.

Man: Tell me about the concert.

Dawn: Well, one group didn't come so it finished an hour early. That made me angry! But the music was great and very loud – I loved it!

Man: Did you go to the beach?

Dawn: Well, it was a long bus trip to get there so I only went once. Anyway, I spent most days buying clothes.

Man: It all sounds great!

Girl: Did you win your match last night, André?

André: Yes. I'm much better since I started having tennis lessons with my new teacher, Paul.

Girl: How often do you have lessons?

André: Every Wednesday because the only other day he teaches is Friday and I can't go then. You like tennis. Why don't you come too?

Girl: Hmm. How much are the lessons? That's the first question my parents will ask!

André: I give Paul twelve pounds and he teaches me for an hour. It's not expensive.

Girl: No. Maria pays eighteen pounds an hour.

André: But she goes to the tennis club. Paul works at the tennis courts in Gerald Street.

Girl: How do you spell that?

André: G E R A L D.

Girl: OK. And what time's your lesson? Can I come and meet Paul next time?

André: Yes. I start at six fifteen and play until quarter past seven. You can come at the same time.

Girl: OK. What should I wear?

André: You don't need to wear a tennis dress. Shorts and a T-shirt will be fine.

Girl: All right. See you then.

This week I'm going to tell you about my favourite hotel. It's in the west of Ireland and the best time to go there is June. I've loved this hotel since I was a child. It's called The White Hotel because it's always painted that colour. It's built on one of the most beautiful islands I have ever visited – Achill Island. You say 'Akil', but it's spelt A C H I double L.

It's one of the oldest hotels in this part of the country. It was built in eighteen fifty-nine and the rich and famous have enjoyed going there ever since. You can see the sea or mountains from every room. But it's difficult to book a bedroom there because there are only thirty-six of them and the hotel can't take more than fifty guests at one time.

Visitors also enjoy the hotel restaurant. People go there from all over the world to eat its fish. It's caught that day in the sea round the island. Try it cooked with tomatoes.

So, if you want ...

Man: I'm going to have chicken and salad. What would you like?

Woman: Um, the soup looks good, but the weather's a bit too warm for anything hot.

Man: Why don't you have sandwiches?

Woman: They don't look very nice. I think I'll have the same as you.

3 Which train will the woman take?

Woman: When is the next train to Ashford?

Man: I'm afraid you're just too late for the eleven thirty. The next one is twelve forty-five, but you'll have to change trains. The two fifteen is quicker because it goes straight to Ashford.

Woman: I don't mind changing trains – I'll have a return ticket, please.

Man: There you are.

4 How much did the man pay for the camera?

Man: I've bought a new camera.

Woman: It looks expensive. Cameras like that cost about a hundred and fifty pounds, don't they?

Man: This was a hundred and seventy-five pounds but the man in the shop took fifteen pounds off the price because it was in the shop window and there was no box for it.

Woman: A hundred and sixty pounds is still a lot of money. I hope it takes good pictures!

5 Which race did the girl win?

Girl: Were you at the sports competition on Saturday?

Boy: Yes. I saw you come first in your bicycle race. But your best sport is swimming, isn't it?

Girl: Yes – but I was second in that. Next year I'm going to try running in the eight hundred metres too.

Boy: Wow! You are good at sports!

Man: Have you found a room for your birthday party yet, Rosie?

Rosie: Yes, at the University Hotel. It's old but the room's nice and big.

Man: Did you look at any other places?

Rosie: Yes, five! And there was something wrong with all of them!

Man: Why didn't you like Brown's Café?

Rosie: I loved it but they're putting in a new kitchen so they won't be open for two months.

Man: Oh. And the Rivers Hotel? It was very cold when I went there last year.

Rosie: It's quite warm now but it's not very clean!

Man: Pity! What about the Bridge Restaurant? Or is it too dark there?

Rosie: No, but the problem is none of their rooms is free on my birthday.

Man: And it's expensive.

Rosie: Not really, but the Garden House is.

Man: Oh yes, I know! I had a great dinner party at the Opera Café last week.

Rosie: It's fine for a dinner but it's not big enough for a party.

Man: So, the University Hotel it is then?

Rosie: Yes.

Joe: Hello. I'd like some information about French courses, please.

Woman: Certainly. Beginners classes are on Wednesdays, other classes are on Mondays or Fridays.

Joe: I'm a beginner and I'm going to France on holiday. I want to speak to people in shops and read information in museums and other places.

Woman: Do 'French for Tourists' then. It'll be better than our Business class and you want more than French Conversation.

Joe: Great. I can only come in the evening.

Woman: Fine, it starts at half past six, there's a break at quarter past seven and you go on until half past eight.

Joe: Is it a big class?

Woman: We never have fewer than nine students or more than fifteen and ... let me see, there are fourteen at the moment, so with you, the class will be full.

Joe: OK. What about the coursebook?

Woman: You'll get that in the first class and a special notebook. Bring a dictionary – that's always useful.

Joe: Fine. Oh, how much is the course?

Woman: It's a hundred and seventy pounds for people from outside the city, but it's twenty-five pounds less, or a hundred and forty-five pounds, if you live here.

Joe: Oh, I do.

Woman: Good. So let me just take your name ...

Diana: I'm busy on Mondays. What can you do on Tuesdays?

Man: Well, there's a course to teach you how to make easy meals from different parts of the world. The teacher's Terry Wood. He's in the restaurant business.

Diana: That sounds good. What about Wednesdays?

Man: That class is about the cinema in Italy and France.

Diana: Oh, I'd like that. Is there a course for you – something on business perhaps?

Man: Well, on Thursdays, there's one looking at different companies around the world. If you do it, you spend a lot of time on the college computers, which is good.

Diana: Oh.

Man: There's another interesting course on Friday. You learn about the moon and all the different stars.

Diana: Really? Is there anything on Saturday?

Man: Yes, then you can learn about the lives and work of the world's greatest painters.

Ben: Well, it is a business trip – and the weather will be different everywhere I go.

Ben's wife: I suppose on Sunday you'll travel in your jeans.

Ben: Yes. Then on Monday I'm going to meet the company boss, so I'll need my suit then. I can't wear jeans.

Ben's wife: What's happening on Tuesday?

Ben: I'm visiting a factory in the south, so I've packed these grey trousers. They're light and I won't need a jacket – it'll be thirty-five degrees!

Girl: Hi Duncan. How was your tennis course at the weekend?

Duncan: Well, I was actually there for five days, not two.

Girl: Oh! Was the hotel nice?

Duncan: Beautiful! We were high up in the mountains. We looked down on the lake, where we swam every morning, and across to the town on the other side.

Girl: Was the teacher good?

Duncan: Excellent. He's worked here in England for ages but he was born in Canada, so he speaks French and English.

Girl: I'd like to do the course. Was it very expensive?

Duncan: Um, the full price in the summer is two hundred and sixty-five pounds, but it only cost me two hundred and five pounds because I'm a student. In the autumn it's less – a hundred and eighty-five pounds.

Girl: Hmm. Did you have to buy anything special?

Duncan: I already had tennis clothes, and the hotel had racquets and balls, but I got some new shoes because my old tennis ones were too small.

Girl: What did you do in the evenings?

Duncan: Sometimes we watched videos of tennis matches, but on the last night we danced and sang songs in the hotel garden. That was great!

James: I know, it's going to be amazing! What are you doing Amy?

Amy: I've found a nice room above a restaurant and I'm booking it tomorrow. There's space for fifty guests so we'll be fine. And what about you, James? Are you getting the present?

James: I'm no good at choosing presents, Amy! I'm going to call all Sally's friends and ask them to come to the party. Oh, and I spoke to Claire yesterday.

Amy: What's she doing? If she's free, she can put up some balloons.

James: She's thinking about the music, actually. I know Tom usually plans the music, but this time he's bringing juice and lemonade. There was a big discount at the supermarket so he got lots.

Frank: OK. What do I need to bring?

Jessica: Just wear comfortable sports clothes. You can leave your trainers at home, because the teacher doesn't want us to wear shoes. And bring lots to drink.

Frank: I'm not very fit. Is that a problem?

Jessica: No, there are people of all ages there and lots of them aren't very fit. But tell the teacher if you have never done dance classes before.

Frank: Are the classes expensive?

Jessica: The price has just changed from five pounds to six pounds. It's still a good price, though, because other classes at the sports centre cost eight pounds.

Frank: OK, shall I come to your house at half past seven?

Jessica: I'm going straight from college. There's a café in the sports centre so let's meet there.

Man: They've got three places then, so that's possible.

Sally: Tuesday will be better. Emma works on Mondays. Oh dear, the course is full that day.

Man: What about Wednesday? I'm free then so I can drive you there.

Sally: Let's see. It says seven places are taken and there are five left.

Man: Good. Let's ask Emma if that's OK.

Sally: Let me just check the other days first. So, Thursday ...

Man: Only one left and you need two places. So that's no good. Are you busy on Friday?

Sally: Not until seven. Oh. They've only got room for two more students.

Man: You must decide quickly or it may be full. Oh look. There are courses on Saturday too, in smaller groups of six.

Sally: And there is space for four more people then. I'll see what Emma thinks.

Stephen: This soup is amazing, Jenny. Do you use fresh tomatoes to make it?

Jenny: No, Stephen. I just use a can of tomatoes. Some people think roast tomatoes are best, but that's too much hard work for me.

Stephen: Who taught you how to make it?

Jenny: My aunt's friend gave the instructions to my mother, who changed them a bit, then taught me.

Stephen: It's not too thin, is it?

Jenny: That's because I don't use much water. At first, I used four cups, then three, but I think two is best really.

Stephen: So, what else is in it?

Jenny: Some butter, an onion, the tomatoes, salt and pepper, and to make it really nice, a cup of milk. It's much cheaper than cream, you know.

Stephen: Mmm. How long does it take to make?

Jenny: No longer than twenty minutes. You fry the onion for five minutes, add everything else, then boil for about ten.

Stephen: So, what are we having for the main course?

Jenny: Well, we're having fruit cake for dessert, and for main course we've got pasta. I wanted to do lemon chicken, but I didn't have time.

Stephen: Lovely!

Woman: Welcome to York Garden Centre! How can I help you?

Boy: I'm looking for a plant for my mum's birthday. What's this one called?

Woman: Sweet William. Some people think its name comes from the writer William Shakespeare.

Boy: That's interesting. What colour will the flowers be on this one?

Woman: This type is pink, but they can also be red or purple. It'll be very pretty.

Boy: Good. When will the flowers come?

Woman: Every spring. Then you need to cut them before the summer, so they return next year.

Boy: OK. When should I put it outside?

Woman: Well, it's August now. Wait until September to put it in the garden.

Boy: How tall will it grow?

Woman: Some types are only fifteen centimetres tall, but in two or three years this one'll be forty centimetres tall. Leave space for it!

Boy: I'd like to buy it. How much is it?

Woman: The normal price is ten pounds but it's only eight pounds this weekend because we have a special discount.

Boy: Great!

Audioscript-5

Woman: Good morning students! I hope you're enjoying your stay here in the mountains. Now, I've got some information about tomorrow's day trip to North Lake. The bus is always very busy at this time of year, so we'll take the train. You'll see some beautiful countryside on the journey. To join the trip, please be here at one fifteen. You can have lunch in the café here at twelve thirty before we go. When we're there, you can choose to go walking with me, or fishing with Mr Thomas. But no swimming – the water's too cold at this time of year. Your ticket will cost eight pounds and you'll want some money to spend at the shop so bring twelve pounds, please. Now, this is important. We'll meet to return to the station at the end of the day outside the Aster Hotel, next to the lake. That's A-S-T-E-R. So, who would like to come?

How will they travel to the pop concert?

Boy: I'm really excited about the pop concert tonight, Susan. Is your dad taking us by car?

Susan: He can't – he's going out.

Boy: Never mind. What about the bus? I think it stops near the stadium.

Susan: Great idea! And it'll be much cheaper than a taxi.

2 What was the weather like on Beth's holiday?

Man: Hi Beth! How was your holiday at the beach?

Beth: We had a great time, but it was more cloudy than it usually is in July. I prefer it when it's really sunny.

Man: That's a shame!

Beth: It was OK. At least it didn't rain.

3 Where has the teacher put the dictionaries?

Boy: Mrs Fletcher, I need a dictionary for this question, but there aren't any on the shelf.

Teacher: I've moved them to the library, Peter. Students were taking them from the classroom and leaving them in the café after lunch.

Boy: OK. Can I go and get one?

Teacher: Yes, of course. Bring it back to the classroom.

4 Where did Paul go running yesterday?

Woman: You left your trainers outside yesterday evening, Paul. They're very dirty! Did you run home through the farmer's fields?

Paul: That way takes too long. I followed a path through the woods. It was quite wet.

Woman: Isn't your normal way by the river?

Paul: It is, but they closed the path to repair it. It's open again today.

5 What does Karen still need to get for the school play?

Karen: Dad, can I borrow something from you for the school play? I've got to be a film star who's running away from some photographers.

Man: Sure, Karen. What about my black hat?

Karen: I've got a dark hat already. But can I take your sunglasses? They'll look good together.

Man: Fine. With your long coat, you'll have a great costume.

Boy: Hi Gemma. How was France?

Gemma: The hotel was a bit small but the weather was great.

Boy: You're always going away.

Gemma: Well, my dad's a journalist, so we travel a lot.

Boy: What did you like most about Italy?

Gemma: The shopping! My mum bought me a really cool swimming costume there!

Boy: Where else have you been?

Gemma: Mexico ...

Boy: Wow!

Gemma: We had some amazing meals there. I enjoyed that more than being on the beach!

Boy: And you've visited India. You told us that in Geography class.

Gemma: Yes. My mum's cousin is a tennis coach – he works in a hotel there.

Boy: Is that where you stayed?

Gemma: Yes, but then we visited the countryside in the north. I loved being there. But it was a bit too hot for me.

Boy: Oh ...

Gemma: I've been to Australia too! We visited a famous zoo. That was the best part of the trip. Dad had to write an article about it.

Boy: Ha ... I'd like to visit Canada.

Gemma: I've been there. The mountains are beautiful, but I loved being at our hotel most. It was wonderful.

Boy: You're so lucky!

Gemma: I know.

Tony: You know my after-school science club, Lisa? There's a competition with another school, and I'm in the team!

Lisa: Well done! When is it?

Tony: The club meets on Monday, but the competition is on Wednesday. We're going to practise on Tuesday.

Lisa: Can I come and watch the competition?

Tony: Yes, but it's not at the school – it's at the university, in the building near the town hall.

Lisa: So, how will you get there?

Tony: It's too far to walk, so we'll take the bus. The underground is quicker, but it's expensive.

Lisa: I know. So, is it a quiz?

Tony: Yes. It'll take about forty-five minutes for five questions of five subjects – that's twenty-five questions. There's a fifteen minute break in the middle.

Lisa: What subject are you hoping for?

Tony: I'm not great at biology! I enjoy physics the most. But I think this competition will have lots of questions on chemistry.

Lisa: Is there a prize?

Tony: Yes. First prize is cinema tickets for everyone in the team. Much better than a box of chocolates. And even if we don't win, we can all keep our special T-shirts.

Lisa: Cool! Good luck!

Tony: Thanks!

Man: Good morning. South Field Farm. How can I help?

Girl: I'm phoning about your job advertisement in this week's newspaper.

Man: Yes. We're looking for a student to be a farm worker during the holidays.

Girl: What are the hours?

Man: You'll start at six-thirty am and finish at two p.m. There's a break for lunch at twelve fifteen.

Girl: OK. Are you looking for anything special?

Man: You'll be working with soft fruit, so it's important that you're careful and strong – the boxes get heavy.

Girl: Is the money good?

Man: Our farm workers usually get three hundred and twenty-five pounds a week, but in this job you'll get three hundred pounds a week.

Girl: Why's that?

Man: Because lunch is included. But you do have to pay for your bus tickets.

Girl: OK. I'd like the job. What should I do now?

Man: You need to send me your details, including your address and phone number, before the tenth of May. The job starts on the twenty-fourth of May. I'll let you know next week if we need you.

Audioscript-5

Man: Good evening everyone, and thanks for coming to the cycling club meeting. Now, every year we enter teams in the Cardiff Bike Race, so here's some information about this year's competition. Pens ready? OK. The race is next week, on the twenty-second of September. You can't wear your normal black T-shirts and shorts because another club uses those colours. We'll wear blue instead. Make sure you pack the right ones, please. There'll be four teams with three people on each team. Steven, Petra, Luke and Alice – you've been before so you can help the others. On the day, make sure you get up and have breakfast by seven a.m., so when the race starts at eight-thirty, you're ready. At twenty kilometres, there'll be a place for snacks, with cake and orange juice. No chocolate, I'm afraid! Don't have too much or you'll feel sick. Last year's first prize was cycling shirts. This year, the winners will each get the latest sports watch! Good luck everyone!

1 Where's the girl going this afternoon?

Boy: Are you coming shopping with me and Mom this afternoon?

Girl: To buy your new skateboard? I'd love to, but I'm meeting my classmate Susan. We're going to see that new Japanese cartoon.

Boy: OK, no problem. Mom can help me choose a skateboard.

Girl: And Mom wants to go to the new café in Bridge Street.

Boy: Great! They sell fantastic cakes!

2 Which is the boy's new desk?

Boy: Mum's bought me a desk for my bedroom, Aunt Barbara!

Aunt: Yes. She was looking at one online with four drawers. Did she get that one?

Boy: Mine's got two drawers on the left and three shelves on the right.

Aunt: That's good – you've got lots of books and things. Can I go upstairs and look at it?

Boy: Sure!

3 How will they get to their tennis class?

Boy 1: Are we going to go to our tennis class by bike today? The weather's good.

Boy 2: Yes, it's sunny but not too hot. But I've got a problem with my back wheel, so I'd prefer to go by bus.

Boy 1: Or we could walk. It's not far.

Boy 2: Good idea. My dad says he'll fix my bike next weekend.

4 Which woman is Laura's new English teacher?

Laura: Mum, you see the woman outside the bookshop? That's my new English teacher.

Mum: The woman with long dark hair? She looks like your Aunt Suzanna.

Laura: But Aunt Suzanna's got blonde hair! Anyway, it's the other woman, with short dark hair and glasses.

Mum: Oh, she looks really friendly!

5 What might Harry do if it rains on Saturday?

Katie: Hi, Harry, are you going to go running on Saturday to practise for the school race?

Harry: Possibly, but it might rain. If it does, I don't want to be outside.

Katie: What about playing badminton in the sports hall?

Harry: I like badminton, but my friends don't. We all like volleyball, and that's good exercise, too, so I'll think about that.

Audioscript-2

Woman: Now, I want to tell you about a new school music club. It'll begin on the fifteenth of September and there will be classes once a week until December the eighteenth.

Let me check the day ... Because there's the sports club on Wednesdays, the music club will be on Thursdays.

It'll be after school. Your last lessons finish at ten to four and you can have a break before the music club because it starts at twenty past four and ends at five o'clock.

Here's some information about the teacher. His name's Mr Taylor. I'll spell that for you T-A-Y-L-O-R. You don't know him because he's new.

If your parents would like to phone him, he's happy for me to give you his phone number. It's zero-double seven-nine, three-eight-six, five-two-one.

Oh, you need to know where to go for the club. It's going to be in the library. Use the doors next to the art room because the other doors won't be open then.

Luis: Charlotte! I've got the computer game called Green Space.

Charlotte: Where did you find out about it, Luis?

Luis: I borrowed a magazine from a schoolfriend and there was an ad for it. I asked my mum and she bought it for me from their website.

Charlotte: I really like that game. It's not new, but it's my favourite game because it isn't easy. I play it a lot, which is strange because it's not funny at all! Who are you going to play it with?

Luis: Well, my brother's too busy studying, and my cousin Amy only likes board games. But my granddad has lots of time, so I want to play with him. How long do you usually play it for?

Charlotte: When I was sick last Wednesday, I played for an hour and a half. Then, on Friday, an hour. And on Saturday, three quarters of an hour! Which part do you like best?

Luis: Crossing the river's really good, but the bit I enjoy most is finding something to eat. The part about building a hut's my least favourite.

Audioscript-4

16 You will hear two friends talking about shopping. What did the boy buy yesterday?

Female: I'm glad I got the school book I wanted yesterday.

Boy: Yes, my mum had already bought that and a new magazine for me. Everyone thinks the gloves I got yesterday are cool, too.

Girl: The T-shirt I liked was really colourful!

Boy: But nearly one hundred pounds!

Girl: I know. Let's buy some snacks now. We can eat them during break at school.

17 You will hear a teacher talking to a student called Lyn. Why didn't Lyn come to school yesterday?

Lyn: Mr Jones, could I ask you about the tennis match on Saturday?

Mr Jones: Of course, Lyn. You missed class yesterday. Do you feel better?

Mr Jones: Oh, OK. So, next Saturday's really important. If we win, we'll win the championship!

18 You will hear a boy talking about surfing. How did he learn to surf?

Boy: When I started surfing, I went to the beach with friends and tried and tried, but I didn't seem to improve. Then, I saw that someone was organising lessons, but they were on Fridays when I play football. In the end, I found a website with a famous surfer showing people the best way to learn. That's what helped me.

19 You will hear a girl talking about her day at school. Which subject did she like best?

Girl: School was great today. First, we had a lesson about oceans and the average water temperature in each one. But the most interesting lesson was about bees – how they live together and how they develop from eggs to adults. In another lesson, we read part of a novel and, for homework, we can write either a story or an article.

20 You will hear two brothers talking about last night. Why did they both sleep badly?

Jake: I'm tired this morning. I didn't sleep well.

Nathan: Neither did I. Let's ask Dad to turn down the heating in our room.

Nathan: I can hear Mum playing music downstairs. Let's ask her about the heating.

Jake: Yeah.

Mum: What do you want to do?

Lucas: You know I love planes, so I'd like to fly them for my job.

Mum: Great idea. What job does Tyler want to do?

Lucas: He wants to work at the hospital. His mum's a receptionist there, but he wants to take care of people's teeth!

Mum: That's a good job. Ava wants to be a sports coach, doesn't she?

Lucas: Not now, she wants to show tourists round different towns.

Mum: Oh. And Mark?

Lucas: He's always helping his dad repair cars. Remember, his dad's got a garage? And that's what he wants to do.

Mum: He'll be good at that. Does Victoria know what she wants to do?

Lucas: Yes, to write articles for a newspaper. She wrote a good story about an actor for English last week.

Mum: Great! What about Bobby?

Lucas: He wants to be in plays and work in theatres all over the world.

Mum: He was good in the school play about a hospital.

Isabel: Wow! Don't worry, I'll send you a text later. Have fun painting!

4 Why didn't Niesha go to the party?

Boy: Hi, Niesha, why didn't you go to Jack's party on Saturday? Were you sick?

Niesha: I was when I missed the sports day at school, but I missed the party because we were driving back from holiday.

Boy: Did you visit your aunt – the one who's a chef?

Niesha: Yes, we had amazing dinners every night!

5 Where's Oliver's phone now?

Oliver: Have you seen my mobile anywhere?

Poppy: I think it was on the kitchen table earlier.

Oliver: I've used it since then ... did I put it on the desk afterwards?

Poppy: You often leave it on the sofa when you're watching TV.

Oliver: Ah, I was right. Look – I couldn't see it because of the books.

Audioscript-2

Woman: Hi. Today you're going to do your project. It's called Helping because it's about what people do to look after animals.

First, you're going to do a drawing. It's difficult to draw a monkey because they move so much, so you're going to draw a tiger.

Water is very important for our animals, and at ten forty-five you're going to go with our staff to give some animals their water. Then, at eleven thirty, you'll see our youngest animal. He's really beautiful; he's a baby lion. He's called Sohatsu.

I'll spell that for you, so you can find out more about him on our website. It's S-O-H-A-T-U.

After that, you'll see the dolphins. Some dolphins can live to be sixty years old, but our oldest dolphin is thirty-seven. He's about one hundred kilos and two metres long.

At the end of the day, we'll give you a present -a poster. You can also go to the shop and buy perhaps a T-shirt or a toy.

Audioscript-3

Jasmine: Thank you for taking me camping with you last weekend, Aunt Lizzie.

Lizzie: It was great, wasn't it, Jasmine? Especially when we went swimming. It was too windy to swim in the sea, but the lake was great anyway. Perhaps next time we can try the river.

Jasmine: Sleeping in a tent was new for me. I was worried about it on the first night, but I soon found out how exciting it is! My brother was very unhappy that he couldn't come with us.

Lizzie: Cooking was fun. Well, sometimes. It was difficult to cook the omelette, but I loved grilling the steak on a barbecue. Did you like the pasta I made?

Jasmine: Yes, I was really hungry that day.

Lizzie: The campsite was quite big, but it's a pity they didn't have anywhere to buy food and things. And the showers were a bit dirty, but OK. Which activity did you like best?

Jasmine: Well, running in the forest was OK, but hard. But fishing was amazing, even more fun than cycling!

Lizzie: I'm glad you had a good time.

Audioscript-4

16 You will hear a girl, Teresa, talking to her friend. Who's Teresa waiting for?

Steve: Hi Teresa, why are you waiting outside the school gates?

Teresa: My aunt's picking me up today because we're going into the centre to buy some birthday presents.

Steve: Do you think she'd take my brother? She knows him. He's in your class. He's talking to Mr Harrison, the new sports coach, over there.

Teresa: Let's ask her. That's her car.

17 You will hear a boy phoning his mother. Why is he phoning her?

Boy: Mum, I'm still at school at the moment. If it's OK with you, I'd like to go to Frank's house after school because we want to work on our science project together. All right? And Frank's mum's said I can have dinner with them too. I hope you haven't already cooked something for me.

18 You will hear two friends talking about a new café. How will they find out where the new café is?

Boy: Let's go to that new café after school. Do you know where it is?

Girl: I tried to go online earlier to find out, but the wi-fi wasn't working. Isn't there a big notice about it on the wall in the library?

Boy: You're right, let's go and read it. Has anyone in our class been to the café yet?

Girl: Sophia has.

19 You hear a girl and her dad talking about a boat tour. Why do they decide to go on the boat tour today?

Dad: How about going on a boat tour today?

Girl: Yes! I don't mind that the weather's a bit cloudy.

Dad: Uncle Pablo works for the tour company and he's telling tourists about the history of the town when they're on the boat today!

Girl: I'd love to hear him!

Dad: Me too. I'll book our tickets online. It isn't cheaper, but it's more convenient.

20 You will hear a boy, Hugo, talking to his teacher. must Hugo do first?

Male: Hugo, are you free after my lesson?

Hugo: Yes, would you like me to take these books to the library for you?

Man: Thank you, but actually, Mrs Spencer, who works in the office, needs a pupil to take some boxes to the computer room.

Hugo: OK, fine.

Man: Thank you. I've got to show Year 6 how to upload their projects.

Audioscript-5

Girl: Mum, you know Mateo?

Woman: Yes.

Girl: He's got a new hobby. He's really interested in horror films and he wants to see every one that was made in the last ten years!

Woman: Wow! And what's your best friend Hannah's hobby?

Girl: She plays the guitar in a rock group. I took some photos of them last week.

Woman: Let's see ... Great! What about Christopher, what does he do?

Girl: He's so clever. He went on a climbing holiday in Spain, so he's studying Spanish now. And he's having conversation classes in Arabic, too!

Woman: And Samantha? Is she still interested in building model planes?

Girl: She gave them all to her little brother. She goes to a special club at the swimming pool and now she can use the board that's two metres high!

Woman: Fantastic! What about Andrew?

Girl: He's always in a play at school. He likes playing a bad guy.

Woman: Really? Has Grace got a hobby?

Girl: Yes, you can see an exhibition of her pictures in the school hall next week. I think her best one's of her dad climbing a mountain.

Woman: Great!
